Will represents both plaintiffs and defendants in disputes and litigation pending in state and federal courts. Will is a trusted advisor and formidable advocate for clients in a wide range of complex legal matters.

Will has assisted to successfully represent clients in complex business disputes involving breach of contract, fraud, business torts, and partnership disputes between partners in closely-held businesses and disputes related to limited liability partnerships. Will has helped clients resolve disputes related to partnership agreements, fiduciary duties, and business dissolution.

In addition to business litigation, Will has experience representing clients in real estate litigation and oil and gas litigation, in a variety of matters, including boundary and land disputes, landlord/tenant, disputes related to oil and gas leases, royalty disputes, and environmental compliance.

Will is dedicated to providing exceptional legal representation and personalized service to his clients and works tirelessly to protect their interests.

In law school, Will served as the 3L class president, was a Dean's Ambassador, was on the Board of Barristers where he served as the Director of Communications, was the President of the Aggie Bar Association, and represented the school in a National Negotiation Competition. Will also served as a Court Appointed Special Advocate and was a member of the State Bar of Texas Law school Pro Bono College. Now, among other things, will is active in the San Antonio Young Lawyers Association, serving on the executive board.

Outside the office, will enjoys spending time with his wife, Anamaria, and their daughter, Clara. A lover of the outdoors, he can often be found working outside, sitting on the back porch, or cheering on his favorite teams. Will is also a proud yelp elite reviewer, always on the hunt for the next great local spot. Will is a loyal defender of his beloved kolaches and is known to passionately defend their honor. Will brings energy, curiosity, and good humor to everything he does.

Will is also a Certified Texas Mediator.
